6/25/14 – EPA Extends Comment Period for Proposed Expanded Reach Under Clean Water Rules

EPA and the Corps of Engineers are extending the comment period for a proposed rule defining the scope of the waters protected under the Clean Water Act (CWA). The agencies propose to assess on a case-specific basis which "other waters" are covered waters, based on whether they have a "significant nexus" to a traditional navigable water, interstate water, or the territorial seas. Comments are now due on October 20th.
