A force for positive change in the design / construction industry

8/23/10 – CIRT Member Selected to Serve on U.S. State Department Industry Advisory Panel

CIRT is pleased to announce that Kathleen Shanahan, CEO of WRscompass, has been selected to serve as a member of the Bureau of Operations' (OBO) Industry Advisory Panel (IAP) for a term of one year beginning October 1, 2010, representing CIRT. Formed under the Federal Advisory Committee Act, the IAP is an advisory committee that provides the Bureau of Operations with a unique opportunity to ensure that they consider the best possible methods available to provide more secure and more functional facilities for the conduct of U.S. diplomacy and the promotion of U.S. interests worldwide. IAP members are asked to share their knowledge and expertise by providing information on industry and academia's latest concepts, methods, and best practices related to design, construction, and facility management.
